EE shall specify in their application the number of leave hours they are requesting. If those are exhausted, the EE may file a new application for a specified number of additional hours. Catastrophic Leave may only be used for a qualifying "medical emergency" as provided under applicable federal and state law. As described in U.S. I.R.S. Revenue Ruling 90-29 (1990-1 C.B. 11 , 1990 I.R.B. 5) a "medical emergency" is defined as a medical condition of the EE or a family member of the EE that will require the prolonged absence of the EE from duty and will result in a substantial loss of income to the EE because the EE will have exhausted all paid leave. A family member of the EE includes a spouse, domestic partner, parent or dependent child. State and federal income tax on the value of leave donated shall be deducted from the receiving EEs pay at the time of payment to the EE. The donation of leave hours shall not be reversible. In the event all hours donated are not used for the catastrophic illness or injury, the balance will remain in the leave bank for subsequent use by eligible EEs with a qualifying catastrophic
