Established in 1991, the Alameda County Healthy Homes Department has become a national leader in childhood lead poisoning prevention and healthy homes programs, combining health, environmental and residential hazard reduction services under one umbrella.

If you own a property built before 1978 your home might have lead-based paint.

The Alameda County Healthy Homes Department has professionals with expertise on how to keep your home lead safe. In-home consultation services are available to property owners of pre-1978 housing units in:

- Alameda
- Berkeley
- Emeryville
- Oakland

- Preserve your investment!
